• Please let us know of any recent foreign travel, contact with imported animals or association with any infectious disease outbreaks.

• Herd owners are advised to ensure the correct postage is paid. Failure to pay the correct postage WILL delay the arrival and processing of your samples.

(A large letter stamp is generally adequate for up to 10 samples packaged appropriately in a regular envelope. Please weigh your package at your local post office, and take guidance from Royal Mail staff if you are unsure.)

• It is also advisable to write your herd number on the back of the postage envelope.
